THE GILLIGAN TRIAL.

After being three times called and continued, the case of Andrew Carter Gilligan, charged with the assasination of C. Beverly Turner, the father of his sweatheart, Isabel Turner, on the night of December 27, 1899, was renewed yesterday at Isle of Wight Court House. When court adjourned in the evening when court adjourned in the evening every barrier but one likely to bring about further postponement had been disposed o. The one remaining of stacle is the absence because of illness of Mrs. Susie Batten, a sister of Gilligan, and who is alleged to be an important witness. There was a fair-sized attendance. Witness W. H. Weed, on whose account the last continuance was had, was not present, but his absence was account the last continuance was had, was not present, but his absence was waived by the defense.

When court opened Col. J. C. Baker, another lawyer for the defense, was introduced. There are now five a torneys in the case, three of whom represent Gilligan. Gilligan seemed in excellent spirits and health.

The argument over the love letters.

The argument over the love letters written by Miss Turner to Gilligan was the feature of the day's session. The detense has all along contended that they were entitled to the original letters It is by these that Gilligan's lawyers mean to establish or a renghten their client's plea of self defence. Judge Hinton, for the defense, intimated that the counsel for prosecution has used questionable methods in procuring the let ters. He said that Gilligan was being wrongfully deprived of the means which would establish his innocence.

Col. Boykin declared that any charge which accused him of improper conduct in connection with the letters was unrue. Judge Hinton interrupted, and a warm exchange of words followed. Judge A.kinson finally ruled that the defense could use the original love letters, but their custody should be held by the Judge Hinton enumerated the facts he expected to prove by the letters. He said they would prove that his client and Miss Turner were lovers; that he visited her constantly at her solicitation; that he continued to visit her up to the very moment of the killing, and that he had come that fatal night by Miss Turner's invitation.

Miss Lillie Gilligan and Miss Hattie Batten, sister and niece, respectively, of the accused, came into court after adthe accused, came into court after adjournment and embraced the prisoner. Gilligan lighted a cigarette and was led to jail. This is he second night of imprisonment in Isle of Wight.

Miss Turner, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Agnes Turner, both heavily veiled and dressed in black, arrived about 11 o'clock and retired to their rooms in a hotel. Mrs. Turner is in poor health.

CALF SPREADS HYDROPHOBIA SCARE -Mrs. Silas Carrier, of Augusta county, was bitten severely by a calf a few er, being examined by a veterinary sui- 20c PER YARD FOR A NEAT JOINT days ago. The calf died, and its mothgeon, was found to be probably infected with hydrophobia, and the cow was killed. Silas Carrier was also thought to be infected in a scratched finger and he and his wife became terrified. They telegraphed for the celebrated Shepard madetone at Lynchburg, but before it came neighbors collected $200 and sent Mr. and Mrs. Carrier on to Bultimore Monday to be treated by the Pasteur

A SEA PERPENT .- At Atlantic City, N. J., on Funday Cost Guard Martin and Policem in Frank Nash report having killed a marine nonster, which looked to them like a sea serpent, after a hard fight. Martin, while walking along the teach in Chelses, saw the fish ing along the teach in Choises, saw the fight caught in the surf and went after it with a club. Nash, seeing the struggle, went to his assistance. The two men finally secured the ugly-looking thing, which had an clonged body, about twelve feet in length and was probably two feet thick. The neck was several feet in length, the head being fist and the jaws were set with two rows of fangs. The tide carried the body out to sea before the men could secure it. on could secure it.

A PARIS BULL FIGHT - Something of a sen sation has resulted at Paris owing to the fact that a bull fight on the complete Spanish principle took place just outside of Paris Mon-day. Six bulls were killed and seven horses disembowled. One bull jumped the barrier in among the people, but was brought down. One matador was to used by a bull, but not dangerously burt. The really sensational incident was the attempted assissination of two matadors, who were shot at by a mad Swede. It is hardly expected that the thing will be allowed to continue.

QUESTION ANSWERED. Yes, August Flower still has the argest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using any-thing else for Indigestion or Billous-ness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendictis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undi-gested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make Fertilizers, Fertilizer Materials and you satisfied there is nothing serious
